Conservation training workshop

Posted on Wednesday, January 28 @ 08:54:08 CST BST

January 28, 2004 - Some of the rare and ancient textiles of Bhutan are being repaired at the textile museum in Thimphu as a part of the six-week conservation training workshop organised by the museum.

Julia Brennan and a trainee engaged in repairing an ancient textile

Conducted by a US based textile expert, Julia Brennan, about 15 participants, from the textile museum, Paro national museum and the department of culture properties, are attending the workshop since December 30, 2003.

According to Singye Dorji, Director of the textile museum, the main objective of the workshop was to equip the museum staffs with the basic knowledge on the ways to preserve priceless textile artifacts that Bhutan has.
